Pfeiffer Vacuum Online Shop

Extensive selection,
clearly arranged,
short delivery times

Large selection

Are you planning a new vacuum system or looking for a suitable component? Or do you need to obtain extra components for your test set-up at short notice and without any hassle? Then you've come to the right place: Pfeiffer Vacuum's online shop offers you a wide selection of quality products. You will find everything from vacuum components and valves to manipulators and feedthroughs, including measurement instruments and chambers.

Straightforward to use

Just register once in our online shop and then enjoy the advantages: After registering, you no longer need to enter your delivery and billing address every time you order. Regular customers are also immediately shown the current, individual sales prices of the products. And if you want to buy one or more articles regularly from us, the system will help you automatically: Simply go to a saved order and resend the order.

Once you have filled your shopping cart, you can use our request for quote module before actually placing an order to get a quotation for the products you've selected.

Products you will find in our online shop:

- Vacuum components
- Vacuum chambers
- Valves
- Measurement instruments
- Feedthroughs
- Manipulators
- ... Ask for any other products you require

Fast availability

We have more than 3,000 different articles available immediately (more than 750.000 parts permanently on stock) ready for you in our ultra-modern warehouse. This makes for immediate availability and ensures your online purchase proceeds smoothly. Product delivery times and stocks shown are always up-to-date. Ideal if you have to plan at short notice:

Items in stock that you order by 12 noon are dispatched the same working day.
